

Welcome to 'The CrimsonPulse'

This is your bi-weekly snapshot of what's moving, growing, and making an impact across the WSU College of Education, Sport, and Human Sciences. Think 'Morning Brew' for CESHs, bringing you the latest in everything from student success and faculty innovation to research, partnerships, and moments that matter. CrimsonPulse keeps a finger on the heartbeat of the college—so you can see how the work we do connects and where we're headed.

Latest Stories

Upholding Our Land-grant Mission

Recently, CESHs announced the administrative dean role will move to WSU Vancouver.

Read more

CESHs featured in WSU Magazine

Margaret Vaughn discusses reading and literacy in the age of AI in this WSU Magazine piece.

See the issue

WSU Insider: AI in the Classroom

A look at how WSU CESHs is bringing AI responsibly into the classroom

Read the article

Mission Moment Board of Regents | January 2026

Dean Thomas-Brown recently shared an update with the Washington State University Board of Regents focused on how the College drives impact through education, research, and engagement as part of WSU's mission as a land grant university.

See the slides

Save the Date #CougsGive 2026: April 15

cougs give

#CougsGive is a platform to share what it means to be a Cougar, why we give to WSU, how we contribute to the Cougar community, and how we come together to envision and build our future.

Last year, CESH #CougsGive participants raised an all-time high $34K for the College.

Stay tuned for more info about this year's CESH #CougsGive activities and visit #CougsGive '26 for more info about #CougsGive across the University.

WSU College of Education, Sport, and Human Sciences

PO Box 642114, 99164, Pullman

This email was sent to {{contact.EMAIL}}

You've received this email because you've subscribed to our newsletter.

Unsubscribe