Meet Future Teachers in Community: New Name, Same Focus on Community & Belonging

Formerly known as AFTOC, Future Teachers in Community (FTIC) reflects a renewed focus on Community & Belonging and meaningful support for aspiring educators. FTIC creates welcoming spaces where future teachers are supported academically, professionally, and personally through mentorship, workshops, and shared experiences.

This spring, FTIC events include:

- Application Support Hours (throughout February): Drop-in help for students applying to the Spring 2026 teaching program
- Celebrating Those Who Inspire (April 1): Preparing notes and gifts for local educators
- Money Mindset for Future Teachers (April 22): Building confidence and healthier habits around finances

- Teacher Appreciation & Finals Fuel Week (May 4–8): Food, encouragement, and support during finals

Stay tuned for more updates as FTIC refreshes its brand across the web and social.
